INTRODUCTION

Welcome to BrightStar Care! We are excited to have you join our team.

This Employee Handbook contains information about the employment policies and practices of Tam Pacific Group, LLC DBA BrightStar Care (“BrightStar Care”) in effect at the time of publication. Except for employment at-will status and arbitration agreement, BrightStar Care reserves the right to change, in its sole discretion, all such policies and practices and the hours, wages, working conditions, job assignments, positions, titles, compensation rates and benefits for any employee. Other than the Owners of BrightStar Care, no manager, supervisor, or representative of the Company has any authority to enter into any agreement for employment for any specified period of time or to make any agreement for employment other than at-will. Only the Owners have the authority to make any such agreement, and then only in writing signed by the Owners and the employee expressly making this change.

The policies set forth in this Handbook replace any and all previous policy statements, whether written or oral, which differ from or are inconsistent with the policies expressed in this Handbook. Such prior policies shall have no force or effect after the effective date of this Handbook.

EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITY

It is the responsibility of each employee to learn and abide by all Company policies, including those contained in this Handbook. If you are unclear on any policy, ask the Human Resources Manager. Failure to follow any of the Company’s policies will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

AT-WILL EMPLOYMENT

Employment at BrightStar Care is employment at-will. While we hope our employment relationship will be a satisfying and mutually beneficial one, nothing in this Employee Handbook creates, or is intended to create a promise or representation of continued employment for any employee. Employment at-will may be terminated at the will of either the employer or the employee. Employment and compensation may be terminated with or without cause and with or without notice at any time by you or BrightStar Care.

COMPANY POLICIES & PRACTICES

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

It is the policy of BrightStar Care to make all employment decisions without regard to an individual's race (or characteristics associated with race, including protected hairstyles), religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, sexual orientation, military and veteran status, registered domestic partner status or any other basis made unlawful by applicable law. BrightStar Care is an equal opportunity employer and strictly prohibits unlawful discrimination by any employee, including managers, supervisors, and coworkers. This policy pertains to all aspects of our employment terms and conditions including, but not limited to, recruitment, hiring, training, promotion, termination, compensation, and benefits.

The Company will make reasonable accommodations for known physical or mental disabilities or medical conditions of qualified applicants or employees. A qualified applicant or employee who may require an accommodation in order to perform the essential functions of the job should notify the Human Resources Manager. The Company will engage in a timely, good faith, interactive process with the applicant or employee to determine the need for a reasonable accommodation. If a reasonable accommodation exists and will not impose an undue hardship on the Company, an accommodation will be made.

If you believe you have been subjected to unlawful discrimination, please follow the complaint procedure outlined in this Handbook below.

PROHIBITED HARASSMENT

BrightStar Care maintains a strict policy prohibiting harassment because of an individual's race (or characteristics associated with race, including protected hairstyles), religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, sexual orientation, military and veteran status, registered domestic partner status or any other basis made unlawful by applicable law. Harassment based on the perception that anyone has any of those characteristics or is associated with a person who has or is perceived as having any of those characteristics is also prohibited. This policy applies to all persons involved in the operations of BrightStar Care and prohibits such harassment by any employee of the Company, including managers, supervisors, and coworkers. The policy is also in place to protect employees from prohibited harassment by third parties. It also prohibits employees from engaging in prohibited harassment against third parties. Prohibited harassment may have occurred even if you have not lost a job or some other economic benefit. However, only harassment that unreasonably interferes with your work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment is unlawful. Prohibited harassment will not be tolerated, whether or not it rises to the level of unlawful conduct. Conduct that is prohibited under this policy includes, but is not limited to:

- Verbal conduct such as epithets, derogatory comments, slurs or unwanted sexual advances, invitations, or comments.

- Visual conduct such as derogatory posters, photography, cartoons, drawings, emails, internet sites or gestures.
- Physical conduct such as unwanted touching, blocking normal movement or interfering with work directed at you because of your sex or any other prohibited basis.
- Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests in order to keep your job or avoid some other loss and offers of job benefits in return for sexual favors.
- Other threats and demands based upon any other prohibited basis.
- Retaliation for opposing, reporting, or threatening to report prohibited harassment or for participating in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or any state fair employment agency.
- Sexually harassing conduct need not be motivated by sexual desire.

You have a right to have your concerns and complaints about prohibited harassment addressed. If you believe you are being harassed on the job because of your race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, sexual orientation, military and veteran status, registered domestic partner status or any other basis protected by applicable law, please follow the complaint procedure outlined in this Handbook below. Employees must report conduct prohibited by this policy whether or not they are personally involved.

PROHIBITED RETALIATION/WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION

BrightStar Care prohibits retaliation against any employee because of (1) the employee's opposition to a practice or conduct the employee reasonably believes to be unlawful; (2) the employee's lawfully protected participation in an investigation or proceeding; (3) the employee's request for an accommodation for a disability (4) the employee's request for a religious accommodation; or (5) any other activity of the employee that is protected by law. BrightStar Care also prohibits retaliation against an employee because the employee is a family member of a person who has made a wage claim or engaged in other activities protected under the California Labor Code. Any retaliatory adverse action because of such opposition, participation, request, activity, or familial relationship may be unlawful and will not be tolerated.

If you believe you have been subjected to retaliation, please follow the complaint procedure outlined in this Handbook below.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE – DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT & RETALIATION

BrightStar Care encourages you to report all incidents you believe violate the Company's policies against discrimination, harassment, or retaliation whether you feel they are directed at you or another person. You should provide a complaint, preferably in writing, to your own or any other Company supervisor or the Human Resources Manager as soon as possible after the incident or incidents you believe violate Company policy. Your complaint should include the details of the incident or incidents, the names of the individuals involved and the names of any witnesses. Your complaint will be kept as confidential as possible, but no complaint can be kept completely confidential.

Supervisors must promptly refer all complaints to the Human Resources Manager. An appropriate person will be designated to undertake a prompt and impartial investigation of the complaint and document the findings. When the investigation is complete, a determination regarding the complaint will be made and communicated to you as soon as practical. Because of the seriousness of a complaint of prohibited discrimination, harassment or retaliation, no employee should knowingly make or knowingly participate in making a false complaint and employees are required to cooperate with the investigatory process when called upon.

If the Company determines that a violation of policy has occurred, BrightStar Care will take remedial action commensurate with the severity of the offense. Action will also be taken to deter any future violations of Company policy and ensure a work environment free from unlawful discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. You will be kept apprised of such measures taken by the Company. BrightStar Care will not retaliate against you for making a complaint and will not knowingly permit retaliation by anyone.

Complaints of unlawful discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation can be filed with the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) and/or the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). These agencies may accept, investigate, prosecute, and remedy complaints. The telephone numbers for the nearest agency office are listed in the telephone book and online directories. The agencies' websites are www.dfeh.ca.gov and www.eeoc.gov.

OPEN DOOR POLICY

At some time or another, you may have a suggestion, complaint or question about the Company, your job, working conditions or the treatment you or others are receiving. We welcome your suggestions, complaints, or questions. For issues other than prohibited harassment, discrimination, or retaliation, we ask that you take your concerns first to your supervisor, who will investigate and provide a solution or explanation. If the problem is still not resolved, you may present it to the Human Resources Manager, preferably in writing, who will address your concerns. The Owners of BrightStar Care, as with all management, maintain an open-door policy and encourages employees to approach them on any matters pertaining to employment at BrightStar Care.

BrightStar Care takes all employee concerns seriously and attempts to resolve them as soon as possible to everyone's satisfaction.

EMPLOYMENT CLASSIFICATIONS

The employment classifications listed below do not guarantee employment for any specified period of time. Accordingly, the right to terminate the employment relationship at any time is retained by both the employee and employer. Employees at BrightStar Care are classified by the Company as follows:

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF CLASSIFICATIONS

Regular Full-Time Employees: Full-time employees are employees who are normally scheduled to work 40 hours per week and are eligible for benefits as outlined within this handbook.

Regular Part-Time Employees: Part-time employees are employees who are normally scheduled to work fewer than 40 hours per week and are not eligible for benefits other than those required by law.

FIELD STAFF CLASSIFICATION

Per Diem: All field staff including LVN, RN, HCA, HHA, CNA work on a per diem basis. Due to the nature of our work there is no guarantee of work from day-to-day and there is no guarantee of hours.

Inactive Status Employees: Employees placed on inactive status due to a leave of absence or work-related injury may not continue to accrue benefits or seniority unless otherwise mandated by law.

In addition to the above classifications, each employee will belong to one other employment category:

Exempt Employees: Exempt employees are employees whose job assignments meet the federal and/or state requirements for overtime exemption. Exempt employees are compensated on a salary basis and are not eligible for overtime pay.

Nonexempt Employees: Nonexempt employees are employees subject to federal and/or state overtime regulations and will be compensated for overtime hours worked in accordance with the law. Nonexempt employees must comply with the Company's policies regarding overtime and may never work "off-the-clock."

Individuals working through an employment agency (leased employees, etc.) and those working as independent contractors (whether working in administrative or field capacities) are not considered "regular" employees of the Company and are not entitled to any employment benefits provided by the Company. If you have any question about your classification, you should check with the Human Resources Manager.

PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS

Performance evaluations will be conducted periodically. Evaluations are generally conducted on a semi-annual basis. Evaluations may also be conducted in relation to job changes, transfers, etc. The purpose of evaluations is to let you know how well you are performing and whether you have any performance problems. Performance evaluations can be verbal or written, formal or informal. How you are rated on these evaluations in no way changes the at-will employment relationship.

You will have the opportunity to submit your own comments to any and all performance evaluations submitted by your supervisor. Your comments must be submitted in writing to your supervisor or to the Human Resources Manager.

PERSONNEL RECORDS

The information recorded in your personnel file is extremely important to you and to BrightStar Care. It is your responsibility to make sure that the personal data in the file is accurate and up to date. Report any change of address, phone number, emergency contact information, etc. to the Human Resources Manager in writing immediately. You may add to the file your version of any disputed item in your personnel file.

You have a right to inspect and/or receive copies of certain personnel and payroll records, as provided by law. You also have a right to receive copies of documents that you have signed related to obtaining or holding your job.

In order to inspect and/or receive a copy of your records, you or a representative authorized in writing by you, must submit to the Human Resources Manager a written request identifying the date the request is being made and designating the records that you want to review and/or receive copies of; an oral request is adequate when requesting payroll records only. Alternatively, you may request from the Human Resources Manager an employer-provided form to fill out and return to the Human Resources Manager.

The requested inspection and/or copies will be made available at a mutually convenient time no more than 21 days from the date that the Company receives the request from you or the authorized representative. The time you spend inspecting the records is considered non-work time. If copies are requested, you may be required to pay for the actual cost of reproduction.

WORKING HOURS

Normal working hours at Brightstar Care vary based on the needs of each individual client. The office hours are Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 6:00 pm. The work schedule for full-time nonexempt employees is normally 40 hours per week and your supervisor will assign your work schedule. Employees are expected to adhere to their assigned work schedule. Your work schedule may be changed for such reasons as to better serve the client, fluctuations in workload or the reorganization of your team's responsibilities. Changes to your work schedule should not and will not interfere with the laws governing meal and rest periods.

OVERTIME

The Company provides compensation for all overtime hours worked by nonexempt employees in accordance with state and federal law. For overtime pay calculation purposes for nonexempt employees, the workweek at the Company begins Monday at 12:01 am and ends the following Sunday at midnight. The workday begins at 12:01 am and ends at midnight. Your supervisor will notify you when overtime work is required. Prior verbal authorization from your supervisor must be obtained before working any overtime.

DAY OF REST

Supervisors may not require any employee to work more than 6 days in each workweek without prior approval from the Human Resources Manager, unless the employee's hours for the week will not exceed 30 hours for the week or more than 6 hours in any given day. An employee may be scheduled to work for twelve consecutive days as long as they receive at least one day off in each workweek.

Nonexempt employees may request to work a seventh day in the workweek in order to pick up extra hours when available. Employees must submit their request in writing to their supervisor for approval. All such requests should be forwarded to the Human Resources Manager.

PUNCTUALITY AND ATTENDANCE

Each employee plays a vital role in the success of our operations. Regular and predictable attendance and punctuality is an essential function of your position. Therefore, you are expected to be at work on time each day and to adhere to your work schedule.

If you are going to be late or absent from work for any reason, you must personally notify your supervisor as far in advance of your scheduled start time as possible, but no less than one hour prior to the beginning of your shift, so that arrangements can be made to handle your work during your absence. If you cannot provide advance notice, you are expected to notify your supervisor as soon as possible and explain the circumstances. Leaving a message does not qualify as notifying your supervisor; you must personally contact your supervisor. You must call your supervisor on each day you will be absent from work unless you are on an approved leave of absence.

If you must leave work early, you are required to personally contact your supervisor and obtain permission.

If requested, you must provide written verification of the reason for your absence unless the law exempts verification. Presenting verification of your absence does not mean the absence is excused and will not be counted against your overall attendance record. However, any absence or tardy that is specifically excused by law will not be counted against your attendance record.

While the Company understands you may need to be absent from work for a variety of legitimate reasons, absenteeism, and tardiness, even for good reasons, burdens your fellow employees and hinders our operations. For that reason, excessive unexcused absenteeism and tardiness will not be tolerated.

More than three (3) instances of tardiness by a nonexempt employee during any twelve-month period are considered excessive. Any unexcused absence is considered excessive. Any absence or tardy that is excused by law will not be counted against your attendance record.

If you fail to report for work without contacting your supervisor and the absence continues for a period of two (2) business days, the Company will consider that you have abandoned your job and voluntarily resigned your employment.

MAKE-UP TIME

Brightstar Care may permit employees to take personal time off during the workweek and make up work time that is or would be lost as the result of such personal time off.

Make-up time must be requested in writing by you and approved in advance by your supervisor. Make-up time must be worked during the same workweek as the time missed. You are permitted to work up to 11 hours in one day, without incurring overtime, while making up missed time. Under no circumstances are employees permitted to work more than 11 hours in one day for purposes of make-up time.

ALTERNATIVE WORKWEEK

Brightstar Care may implement a new alternative workweek schedule for employees in the specific units. The new schedule will be implemented only if at least two-thirds (2/3) of the employees in the affected work unit approve the arrangement by a secret ballot vote. If the employees vote for the alternative work schedule, employees in the work unit will sign a written agreement verifying their agreement to work the alternative workweek schedule.

Although two-thirds of the employees must vote in favor of the alternative workweek schedule, it is possible that current employees in the affected work unit may not be required to work under the new schedule. Brightstar Care will make reasonable efforts to accommodate those employees who participate in the election but who are unable to work the alternative workweek schedule.

The alternative workweek schedule will be a variation from a standard eight-hour day, five-day workweek. Under a standard five-day/eight-hour workweek, employees are entitled to overtime pay as follows: (a) time and one-half for any hours over 40 in one workweek or for any hours over eight in one day up to 12 hours in a workday or for the first eight hours worked on the seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek; (b) double time for any hours over 12 in a workday or all hours worked in excess of eight hours on the seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek.

Under an alternative workweek schedule, employees will receive straight-time pay for the first 10 hours of work on each scheduled workday during the workweek. All work in excess of 10 hours per day and any work in excess of eight hours on a day not regularly scheduled under the alternative workweek agreement shall be paid at one and one-half (1-1/2) times the employee's regular rate of pay. Any hours worked beyond 40 hours per week will be paid at least at one and one-half (1-1/2) times the employee's regular rate of pay. But daily and weekly overtime pay may not be earned on the same work hours. If an employee is required to work fewer hours than those that are regularly scheduled by the agreement, Brightstar Care will pay the employee time and one-half (1-1/2) for hours worked in excess of eight hours on that day.

If employees vote to adopt the alternative workweek schedule, employees covered by this agreement will receive a 15-minute rest period for each four hours of work or fraction thereof. Employees will be provided at least a 30-minute unpaid meal. The rest and meal periods will be provided in each work period of more than five hours unless the nature of the employee's work prevents the employee from being relieved of all duty and Brightstar Care and employee have a written agreement permitting an on-duty paid meal period. Employees who work more than 10-hours in a workday but less than 12-hours in a workday may agree to waive the second meal period by signing a written agreement that is approved by Brightstar Care. An employee may revoke that waiver at any time by providing Brightstar Care with at least one day's written notice.

Each employee will be advised in advance of his/her work schedule for each work week. As always, Brightstar Care must reserve the right to schedule employees to work in a manner that responds to its needs and responsibilities. Accordingly, variations to work schedules may be necessary from time-to-time, just as they have been in the past.

After a lapse of 12 months from the election and upon petition of one-third of the employees eligible to vote, a new vote by secret ballot may be taken. A two-thirds vote of the eligible employees will be required to rescind this schedule. If the schedule is revoked, Brightstar Care will comply within 60 days, unless it petitions the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement for an extension because of undue hardship.

Brightstar Care may, in its sole and absolute discretion, terminate the use of the alternative workweek schedule provided for in the Agreement upon advance notice to the affected employees of at least one pay period. In such event, Brightstar Care may institute a different schedule, workweek, or work period that is consistent with the applicable legal requirements.

Any questions regarding the possible effects of the proposed scheduling arrangement on an employee's wages, hours, or benefits should be directed to your immediate supervisor, or your Human Resources Department.

TIME RECORDS

Time records must be accurately completed within the Company's timekeeping system by nonexempt employees. Each time record must show the exact time worked and the meal periods taken. All hours must be recorded. Working "off-the-clock" is strictly prohibited. Absences and overtime must be accurately identified on your time record. Based on the electronic nature of our time logging system, when you log into our application using your unique password you are effectively signing your time record certifying that you have accurately recorded all hours of work that you performed and that you received all your meal periods, rest periods and recovery periods consistent with our policy and applicable law, unless otherwise noted on your time record.

You cannot record time and/or submit a time record for another employee or allow another employee to record or submit your time record. You must authorize and submit your own time record.

Exempt employees must report all full day absences away from work and any partial day absences in accordance with applicable time off benefit policies as stated in this handbook. Deductions from an exempt employee's salary will be made only in accordance with applicable law.

You should immediately contact the Human Resources Manager with any questions concerning your pay so that inadvertent errors can be corrected.

MEAL PERIODS

The Company provides all nonexempt employees with duty-free, uninterrupted meal periods in accordance with the law. Your supervisor may schedule your meal period but in the event your supervisor is absent, you are responsible for taking your meal period within the required timeframe.

You must start the meal period before the end of the fifth hour of work. This means no employee shall work for more than 4 hours and 59 minutes without an opportunity to take an unpaid meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes (see table below for an example). In order to ensure that you have the opportunity to take your meal period within the required timeframe, the first meal period must be scheduled no later than 4 hours and 45 minutes after the start of the workday. The purpose of this is to create a buffer in case you are prevented from leaving your work immediately at the planned time.

For example, if your day begins at 8:00 am, your first meal period should be scheduled to begin at 12:45 pm but must always begin before (not at) 1:00 pm:

HOUR OF WORK	CLOCK
1 ST	8:00 - 8:59
2 ND	9:00 - 9:59
3 RD	10:00 - 10:59
4 TH	11:00 - 11:59
5TH	12:00 - 12:59
6 TH	1:00 - 1:59
7 TH	2:00 - 2:59
8 TH	3:00 - 3:59
9 TH	4:00 - 4:59
10TH	5:00 - 5:59

The Company prohibits employees from performing any work on behalf of the Company during their meal period and employees may leave the premises. The Company prohibits management or other employees from interrupting an employee who is on a meal period.

If your workday will be completed within a total of six hours, you may waive the meal period with prior written approval from your immediate supervisor or the Human Resources Manager. If an employee's workday is greater than six hours the first meal period cannot be waived.

Nonexempt employees who work more than ten hours in a day are provided with a second duty-free, uninterrupted 30-minute unpaid meal period. No employee shall work for more than 9 hours and 59 minutes without an opportunity to take an unpaid meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes. In order to ensure that you have the opportunity to take your second meal period within the required timeframe, the second meal period must be scheduled no later than 9 hours and 45 minutes after the start of the workday. The purpose of this requirement is to create a buffer in case you are prevented from leaving your work immediately at the planned time.

If your workday exceeds ten hours of work time, you may waive the second meal period only if you have taken the required first duty-free, uninterrupted 30-minute unpaid meal period and your workday will not exceed 12 hours. To waive the second meal period, you must receive prior written approval from your immediate supervisor or the Human Resources Manager.

Nonexempt employees must observe assigned working hours, the time allowed for meal periods and report any missed meal period each day. For each instance where an uninterrupted meal period is not provided employees are required to explain why they did not take a meal period.

REST PERIODS

Nonexempt employees are entitled to take the following paid rest periods:

- No rest period for shifts under 3.5 hours
- 10-minutes for shifts from 3.5 to 6 hours in length
- A second 10-minute rest period for shifts 6 to 10 hours in length
- A third 10-minute rest period for shifts 10 to 14 hours in length

Your supervisor may schedule your rest periods and whenever practical rest periods should be taken in the middle of your work period. As a general rule in an eight-hour shift, an employee's first 10-minute rest period should be taken before the first meal period and an employee's second 10-minute rest period should be taken after the first meal period. Shorter or longer shifts and other factors that make such scheduling impracticable or infeasible may alter this general rule.

Rest periods are paid work time; they cannot be waived by the employee in order to shorten the workday or used towards additional time off. Rest periods cannot be combined with an employee's meal period. Do not take more than 10 minutes for each rest period provided under this policy.

Nonexempt employees must observe assigned working hours, including the time allowed for rest periods and report any missed rest period. For each instance where an uninterrupted rest period is not provided employees are required to explain why they did not take their rest period.

LACTATION ACCOMMODATION/BREAK

Employees desiring to express breast milk for the employee's infant child may request a lactation accommodation by notifying the Human Resources Manager in writing of the need for accommodation. Unless the Company provides the employee with a written response stating the reasons why the lactation accommodation cannot be provided due to an undue hardship, the employee will be provided a reasonable amount of time and a safe and clean secluded area in close proximity to the employee's work area so that this may be done in private. The location shall be clean and sanitary, and shall provide seating, a surface area to place necessary equipment and personal items, and access to an appropriate power source as needed to operate a breast pump. Access to a sink and running water, and a suitable cooling device will also be provided in close proximity.

Ask the Human Resources Manager for information about lactation accommodation. This time shall coincide with the employee's regularly scheduled rest and meal periods to the extent possible. If a lactation break is taken outside of or extends beyond a paid rest period or unpaid meal period, a nonexempt employee must record the additional time on the timesheet as unpaid time. BrightStar Care encourages you to report all incidents you believe violate your rights under the Company lactation accommodation policy to the Human Resources Manager. Complaints may also be filed with California's Labor Commissioner.

RECOVERY PERIOD

A recovery period means a cool-down period afforded an employee to prevent heat illness. If heat illness prevention guidelines apply to your position, that information will be provided to you.

Employees shall be allowed and encouraged to take a preventative cool-down rest in the shade when they feel the need to do so to protect themselves from overheating. Such access to shade shall be permitted at all times. An individual employee who takes a preventative cool-down rest shall be monitored and asked if they are experiencing symptoms of heat illness; shall be encouraged to remain in the shade; and shall not be ordered back to work until any signs or symptoms of heat illness have abated, but in no event less than 5 minutes in addition to the time needed to access the shade. Recovery periods shall be taken as required by law. Recovery periods are paid work time; they cannot be waived by the employee in order to shorten the workday or used towards additional time off. The Company prohibits management or other employees from interrupting an employee who is on a recovery period.

For each instance where a recovery period was requested but not provided, employees are required to explain why they were not provided the opportunity to take their recovery period.

PAYDAYS

Paydays at BrightStar Care are every Friday. Direct deposit slips or checks are generally available after 4:00 pm and will be distributed by the Human Resources Manager or a designee at the office. If a normally scheduled payday falls on a holiday, paychecks will be distributed the preceding day whenever possible, but no later than the following business day.

A written, signed authorization is required for mail delivery or for delivery of your paycheck to any other person. If you have direct deposit for your paycheck, your funds will be deposited in the account you have identified at the financial institution you requested by the end of business on the scheduled payday.

If a garnishing wage order is received by BrightStar Care for one of our employees, we are obligated by law to comply with the demand. The affected employee will receive notice from their supervisor or the Human Resources Manager as soon as possible.

CALL-IN PAY

SIMPLE IRA

BrightStar Care offers a SIMPLE IRA retirement savings plan to eligible employees who earn at least $5,000 per year and the Company makes matching contributions in accordance with the plan documents; up to a maximum of 3% of gross income. Employees may defer as much income as they wish, subject to IRS contribution limits.

The SIMPLE IRA accounts are established at Charles Schwab & Co., Inc.; however, the accounts are portable should the employee wish to change financial institutions. In the event of any discrepancy between this information and the actual plan documents, the actual plan documents will prevail. Please see the Human Resources Manager for more details.

STATUTORY BENEFITS

STATE DISABILITY INSURANCE

BrightStar Care is required by California law to deduct a certain amount from your pay each pay period towards State Disability Insurance (SDI). All eligible employees are covered by SDI pursuant to the California Unemployment Insurance Code. Disability insurance is payable when you cannot work because of illness or injury not caused by employment at BrightStar Care or when you are entitled to temporary workers' compensation at a rate less than the daily disability benefit amount. Specific rules and regulations governing disability payments are available from the Human Resources Manager or the Employment Development Department (EDD) of the State of California.

FAMILY LEAVE INSURANCE

BrightStar Care is required by California law to withhold an additional percentage of your wages to fund the Paid Family Leave Program (PFL). Employees covered by SDI are also covered under PFL. The benefits under this program are payable when you are required to take time off of work to care for a seriously ill child, spouse, parent, registered domestic partner, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, parent-in-law or to bond with a newborn or newly placed child. PFL Military Assist benefits are available to eligible employees who are required to take time off work due to a qualifying exigency related to the covered active duty or call to covered active duty of their spouse, registered domestic partner, parent, or child. Specific rules and regulations governing insurance payments are available from the Human Resources Manager or your local EDD office.

Insurance benefits provided under this State program will not extend the length of protected leave available to an employee under applicable state or federal laws.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION INSURANCE

The Company contributes to the Unemployment Insurance Fund on behalf of its employees. Specific rules and regulations governing unemployment are available from the Human Resources Manager or your local EDD office.

SOCIAL SECURITY

BrightStar Care is required by federal law to deduct a percentage of your pay and deposit it with the Social Security Administration. Social Security is an important part of every employee's retirement benefit. The Company pays a matching contribution to each employee's Social Security taxes.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION INSURANCE

At no cost to you, you are protected by Workers' Compensation Insurance while an employee at the Company. The policy covers you in case of occupational injury or illness. Employees make no contribution for this coverage.

It is important to report any illness, accident, or injury immediately to your supervisor. It is a crime in the State of California to report a workers' compensation claim that is false or fraudulent. The violator of this law can be punished by a fine of up to $50,000, imprisonment of up to five years, or both.

All time off granted for this type of leave will be counted against your total twelve-week entitlement under FMLA and applicable state laws as described in the Leave of Absence section of these guidelines.

ADMINISTRATION OF COMPANY BENEFITS

Unless otherwise dictated by law, all employer-controlled benefit programs at BrightStar Care are administered by the Company or its designated administrators. The Company reserves the exclusive authority and discretion to determine all issues of eligibility and questions of interpretation and administration of each employee benefit program.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

BrightStar Care may grant leaves of absence to employees in certain circumstances. The Company will grant these leaves to employees as required by state and federal law in effect at the time the leave is granted and will not retaliate against employees for requesting or using protected leave. It is important to request any leave in writing as far in advance as possible, to keep in regular contact with the Human Resources Manager during your leave and to give prompt notice if there is any change in your return date. If your leave expires and you have not contacted the Human Resources Manager, it will be assumed you have abandoned and terminated your employment. If you are unwilling or unable to return to work at the conclusion of any leave, your employment may be terminated.

This Handbook contains only a summary of the leaves that may be available. Some types of leave have detailed requirements regarding eligibility, duration, benefits, etc. Unless otherwise required by law, leaves are unpaid, and benefits do not continue to accrue during the duration of your leave of absence. You may choose to use available accrued paid time off benefits during your leave of absence. BrightStar Care may also require you to use available accrued paid time off benefits for certain leaves as permitted by law. You should contact the Human Resources Manager prior to taking any leave for information about leave requirements and ramifications.

It is understood that you will not obtain other employment (other than military duty pay) or apply for unemployment insurance while you are on a leave of absence. Acceptance of other employment while on leave will be treated as a voluntary resignation from employment with BrightStar Care.

FMLA FAMILY/MEDICAL LEAVE

BrightStar Care recognizes that an employee may need to be absent from work for an extended period of time for qualifying family and/or medical reasons. Our Company complies with federal and state law provisions for family, medical and pregnancy disability leaves. When an employee qualifies for more than one type of leave, the leaves will run concurrently whenever permitted by law. We intend to grant leave benefits only to the extent the law requires.

You must request any leave in writing as far in advance as possible. If you have not contacted your supervisor at the end of your scheduled leave, we will assume that you do not plan to return, and you have terminated your employment. If you are unwilling or unable to return to work at the conclusion of the leave you are allowed, your employment may be terminated.

Reasons for Taking Leave: You may request an unpaid leave for any of the following reasons:

- Birth of your own child, or the placement of a child in your home for adoption or foster care
- Bonding with a child (leave must be taken within 1 year of child's birth or placement)
- To care for your spouse, child, or parent who has a serious health condition

Length of Leave Allowed: The maximum time you will be allowed to take leave, if you are eligible, is 12 workweeks in a 12-month period excluding additional time available when disabled by pregnancy. The Company will use a "rolling" 12-month period measured backward from the date you begin a leave to determine how much leave time is available to you unless another calculation is required by law. You may request a reduced workday or workweek, or intermittent leave that equates to a maximum of 12 workweeks, due to your own medical condition or that of a family member.

Extended Leave for Military Caregivers: Leave entitlement for military caregivers is extended to a total of 26 workweeks in a single 12-month period. Military caregiver leave covers an employee who is the caregiver of a spouse, son, daughter, parent or next of kin who is a covered service member recovering from a serious illness or injury sustained in the line of duty while on active duty in the United States Armed Forces. Advance Notice and Medical Certification: You may be required to provide to us advance leave notice and medical certification. Your leave request may be denied, or your leave delayed if these requirements are not met.

- You must provide us 30 days' notice of your need for leave if such need is foreseeable. If your need for leave is not foreseeable, you must notify us as soon as possible.
- We require medical certification if you request leave because of your own or a family member's serious health condition. We may also require a second or third medical opinion regarding your own serious health condition at our expense. You are required to cooperate with us in obtaining any additional medical opinions we may require.
- If you take a leave because of your own health condition, you must obtain a release from your health care provider before you return to work.

Job Protection and Reinstatement: Employees will normally be restored to their original or equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms when they return from leave. Your use of leave will not result in the loss of certain benefits accrued prior to the start of your leave.

Key employees may be subject to reinstatement limitations in some circumstances. If you are a key employee, you will be notified of such limitations on reinstatement at the time you request a leave.

Continuation of Health Benefits: We will continue our contributions for your health care coverage for the duration of your FMLA leave. You will be invoiced by the Company, or its designated administrators, and required to pay the employee portion of the health benefit premium, including all premiums covering your dependents. If you fail to pay the appropriate premiums in a timely manner, it could result in the termination of benefit coverage.

Premium Cost Repayment: If you do not return to work from a leave allowed by this policy, you will be required to repay the premium amounts we paid during your leave as set forth in the law.

Compensation While on Leave: Leave for this purpose is unpaid. You may elect to use any earned but unused paid sick leave for any portion of the leave that is not covered by disability but are not required to do so.
